TO OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

WE again take pleasure in offering our revised and illustrated CATALOGUE OF BULBS, PLANTS, SMALL FRUITS, ETC., for the Autumn of 1881. The list will be found to embrace all the leading and most desirable varieties, it being our constant aim to introduce and send out only such as have deserving merits. The Hyacinths will be found worthy of special attention, having been personally selected to secure the essential qualities of size, brilliant colors and free blooming. The single varieties are especially recommended for forcing into early bloom in glasses. The collection of Tulips should not be overlooked; their exceedingly brilliant colored flowers are attractive in every garden or house.

QUALITY OF BULBS.—The past season in Holland having been favorable to the growth and development of the Hyacinth, etc., our customers may depend on receiving the very best roots obtainable. We import direct from the best growers in Holland, which is determined by personal visits to their establishments. Our first and largest importation, which we expect about September 10, is from growers doing no business in America; this gives us the benefit of the first execution of our orders, and the first choice from their very large stock, while they are obliged to ship our goods at least a fortnight before their home business commences. These importations are entirely different from the refuse sent out by growers having no home trade, who put up their goods in assorted cases for auction, or offer them by the case as cheap, but which are in reality dear, as they are rarely true to name or color, and frequently prove unsound. Many sorts, such as Lilies, Gladiolus and Greenhouse bulbs, are grown at our Nursery, and are of fine quality.

BULBS BY MAIL OR EXPRESS.—All the Bulbs noted in this Catalogue are delivered FREE by Mail or Express to any part of the United States at the catalogue prices per piece, dozen and hundred, excepting Hyacinths, Crown Imperials, Lilies, Gladiolus and Tuberoses; for Hyacinths, $1.75 per hundred, Crown Imperials and Lilies, 25 cents per dozen, Gladiolus and Tuberoses, $1.00 per hundred, additional, should be remitted to partly cover the expense of delivering, and insuring prepayment.

PLANTS BY MAIL, POST-PAID.—No order under one dollar will be filled, and only small plants can be sent. By our compact and light system of packing we send to all parts of the country in perfect condition; it is, however, always more satisfactory, when strong plants are desired and a quantity wanted, to forward by express at the purchaser's expense. Our plant department is deserving of notice. We are continually receiving, propagating and sending out all the new things as fast as they appear in this country and Europe, at the lowest possible price.

TERMS.—All orders from unknown correspondents must be accompanied by POST-OFFICE ORDER, DRAFT or PRE-PAID EXPRESS REMITTANCE—Postage Stamps can be remitted when currency cannot be obtained—or instructions to COLLECT ON DELIVERY, by Express. Collection charges to be paid by the purchaser. We decline sending Bulbs, Plants, or perishable goods C. O. D. to distant parts, unless the order is guaranteed by your Express agent, or a part remittance.

A LIBERAL DISCOUNT to all purchasers ordering in quantity, especially when the selection of varieties is left to our choice, and shipped at the expense of the purchaser.

CAUTION.—Do not buy of travelling agents or pedlers. Some of these impostors have represented themselves as our agents.—BEWARE OF THEM. We employ no travelling agents. Send direct to head-quarters, and then you are sure of obtaining a genuine article at a moderate price.

ADDRESSES.—Be particular to write your name distinctly, with Post-Office, County and State, also nearest Express Office, when convenient to receive them in that way. Please notify us of any change of permanent address, in order that we may be able to forward our catalogues with regularity. Address,

HARDY SPRING FLOWERING BULBOUS ROOTS.

THEIR NATURE AND TREATMENT.

PLANTED FROM OCTOBER TO DECEMBER.

Bulbs belong to a particular division of the vegetable kingdom; they are all, with scarcely a single exception, very ornamental, and hence desirable for the very large size of their flower in proportion to the entire plant, and for the brilliancy of their colors. By far the greater number of bulbs flower in the spring, and produce their flower stems immediately after they begin to grow; and shortly after they have flowered they cease growing and remain dormant and without leaves during the remainder of the year; hence, almost all bulbs require to be planted in the autumn—a fact which most amateurs are apt to overlook, and frequently send their orders out of season. They require a free, dry and somewhat rich soil, into which the roots may penetrate freely. A bulb is essentially a bud, and contains within itself the germs of the leaves and flowers which are to be produced the following season; thus, in one sense, they are of more easy culture than any other class of plants, because the germ being previously formed, and the nourishment being provided in the body of the bulb, it is only necessary to supply heat and moisture to cause them to develop; this is fully exemplified in the Hyacinth, Narcissus, Crocus, early Tulip, and some other bulbs, which can be flowered when placed over water in glasses or in wet moss. The Hyacinth is the especial favorite for forcing in glasses, and full directions for their management will be found under the head of Hyacinths.

SOIL.—The proper compost for Hyacinths, Tulips, Crown Imperials, Iris, Ranunculus, Anemones, Crocus, and many other bulbs, is the following: one-third sand, one-third well-rotted cow manure, and one-third good garden mould.

TIME OF PLANTING.—The preferable season for planting all hardy bulbs is from October to December; but they can be set out at any later time, so long as the bulbs remain sound and the ground is not frozen.

DEPTH AND DISTANCE.—Hyacinths, large Lilies and Pæonias, should be planted at the depth of four inches; Crown Imperials and Polyanthus Narcissus, five inches; Tulips, Double Narcissus, Jonquils and Colchicums, three inches; Bulbous Iris, Crocus, small Fritillarias, Gladiolus Byzantinus and Snowdrops, two inches; Ranunculus and Anemones, one inch; always measuring from the top of the bulb. The rows should be about ten inches apart, and the bulbs to be placed from four to eight inches apart in the rows, according to their size. As cold freezing weather approaches, give the bed a good covering of leaves, hay, old manure or tan, to prevent the frost from penetrating to the bulbs. Early in the spring, as soon as the shoots are pushing through it, the covering should be carefully removed, and the earth slightly stirred with a garden fork.

TAKING UP AND PRESERVING.—Take up Bulbous Roots about a month after the blossom is completely over, in the following manner: when the plants put on a yellowish decayed appearance, take up the roots, cut off the stem and foliage within an inch of the bulbs, but leave the fibres, etc., attached to them; spread them in an airy room for two or three weeks to dry, after which wrap each root carefully in paper (as the air is very injurious to bulbs), or cover them with perfectly dry sand.

Bulbs intended for blooming in pots during the winter season should be planted during the months of October and November, and be left exposed to the open air (covered with a few inches of tan or soil) until they begin to freeze, and then be placed in the greenhouse or a room where fire is usually made. They will need, occasionally, moderate watering until they begin to grow, when they should have an abundance of air in mild weather, and plenty of water from the saucers whilst in a growing state; and should be exposed as much as possible to the sun, air and light to prevent the leaves from growing too long or becoming yellow.

The Hyacinth.

Among hardy bulbs the Hyacinth stands, deservedly so, foremost on the list; it is not only a general favorite for the garden, but has become exceedingly popular as a winter flower, from the facility with which it may be forced into bloom, either in pots or glasses filled with water. Nothing can be more delightful, either for beauty or fragrance, than a stand of these lovely flowers, in a parlor or drawing-room during the winter months.

TYE'S GLASS.

HYACINTHS IN FERN DISH.

TRIPLET GLASS.

METHOD OF BLOOMING HYACINTHS IN THE WINTER SEASON IN GLASSES.

For this purpose, single Hyacinths and such as are designated early among the Double, are to be preferred. Single Hyacinths are generally held in less estimation than Double ones; their colors, however, are more vivid, and their bells, though smaller, are more numerous; some of the sorts are exquisitely beautiful; they are preferable for flowering in winter to most of the Double ones, as they bloom two or three weeks earlier and are very sweet scented.

Hyacinths intended for glasses should be placed in them during October and November, the glasses being previously filled with pure water, so that the bottom of the bulb may just touch the water; then place them for the first three or four weeks in a dark closet, box or cellar, to promote the shooting of the fibres, which should fill the glasses before exposing them to the sun, after which expose them to the light and sun gradually. If kept too light and warm at first, and before there is sufficient fibre, they will rarely flower well. They will bloom without any sun, but the colors of the flowers will be inferior. To insure vigorous growth a favorable exposure to light and occasional fresh air, when mild, are essential. The water should be changed as it becomes impure; draw the roots entirely out of the glasses, rinse off the fibres in clean water, and wash the inside of the glass well. Care should be taken that the water does not freeze, as it would not only burst the glass, but cause the fibres to decay. Whether the water is hard or soft, is not a matter of much consequence—soft is preferable—but must be perfectly clear, to show the fibres to advantage.

Avoid a low water mark in the glasses by keeping it to a level with the base of each bulb. Never place the glasses upon a mantel-piece or shelf within the influence of fire heat during the process of growth. To stimulate and strengthen the growth, dissolve a pinch of sulphate of ammonia occasionally in the water after the bulbs are exposed to light.

THE TREATMENT OF HYACINTHS IN POTS.

For the growth of Hyacinths in pots, the most favorable planting season for early bloom is September, and, for a succession, at intervals up to January. The size of pots is regulated by the space or convenience for placing them; when limited, and a rich massive effect is wished for, those of six or eight inches in diameter are recommended, in which three or four bulbs may be placed, but where more convenience is had, a succession of single or double bulbs in smaller pots may be admitted—two bulbs in each are very effective, and generally preferred; the colors of such may be regulated according to taste. In potting, use the soil as already described; each bulb should remain one-third above the surface of the soil, and the base of each bulb should rest upon a strata of clean river sand. After potting place them where intended to remain, upon a dry surface of ashes or sharp gravel, in the rotation of their intended periods of bloom, each later potting plunged beyond the previous ones, and thus arranged, water the whole well to imbue the bulbs firmly within the soil, allowing them to remain until the bulbs and surfaces are again dry, for one or two days; then cover the whole over to the depth of three or four inches with half-dried tan, sawdust, sand or soil, for six or eight weeks, in which position the preparatory root-growth is made, necessary to a vigorous development of their flowerscapes. After the period adverted to, less or more, the first potted bulbs may be taken up, the soil and sediment carefully brushed off, and removed to a gentle hot-bed, or a warm genial greenhouse or room where the bloom will progressively expand, care being taken to screen the leaf-growth made in darkness for a few days. A short difference of a week or fortnight between the periods of potting will produce a corresponding difference in the periods of bloom. They are very effective when massed in Fern Dishes, Window Boxes, or in pots ten inches in diameter and six inches deep, either all of one color or assorted, according to fancy.

DOUBLE NAMED HYACINTHS.

For Beds and Border culture. Those marked early are suitable for growing in pots and glasses, and force very readily, but are not so early as the single varieties, which are preferable for forcing in glasses.

Size of Bulbs. Some of the most beautiful varieties of Hyacinths, especially among the double-flowering sorts, produce but small bulbs; but the small size of the bulb does not diminish or increase the size of the spike or the beauty of the flowers.

Tulips.

The Tulip is the most celebrated, popular, brilliant, and has always been prized by florists as the most decorative and showy of spring flowers; and not simply for effect alone, as many of the choice kinds have a delicacy of pencilling and richness of tinting which excel all other plants. They are of easy culture, both in the conservatory or parlor, and the open garden. They will thrive in almost any soil. A sandy soil enriched with rotted cow-manure is, however, preferable; and being perfectly hardy, they can well claim a prominent rank among hardy bulbs.

EARLY DOUBLE TULIP.

LATE SINGLE TULIP.

EARLY SINGLE TULIP.

Their cultivation is yet so limited, that their real beauty is not generally recognized. A few bulbs scattered here and there produce but little effect, but when planted in masses, or in small groups, they become at once grand and brilliant, and eclipse, in real variety of coloring and picturesque effect, almost any other flower. Our collection is unusually fine, embracing all the choicest varieties.

EARLY DWARF DUC VAN THOLL TULIPS.

The Duc van Tholls are admired for their neat dwarf habit of growth, and brilliant color. They are the earliest of all Tulips, and are especially adapted for pot culture for winter blooming. The best effect is produced by planting in large pots, six, twelve, or more bulbs of the different colors.

For early flowers out of doors, they can also be highly recommended, and produce a pretty effect when planted in masses. The varieties are all single, except the Double Red, which is red, yellow bordered, and very attractive in pots or garden culture.

EARLY SINGLE NAMED TULIPS.

These are well known ornaments of the garden, as well as the green house. Forced in pots, they are very gay and fine; and for bedding in mixtures, or in separate colors and sorts, no spring flower is equal to them in brilliancy.

The late mixed varieties and Gesnerianum, are only for garden culture, for beds and groups they are very effective.

EARLY DOUBLE NAMED TULIPS.

This class of Double Tulips can be forced in pots; besides, they are a real ornament for the garden, as their large, early, fine-colored flowers and dwarf habit make them very desirable for bedding, and our list comprises all the best named varieties.

The mixed late double tulips are best adapted for planting out in the garden, and will not bear forcing as well as the early varieties; and for a succession, should be planted in every garden.

PARROT TULIP.

The Crocus.

As one of the earliest ornaments of the flower garden, it is a universal favorite, being neat, dwarf and compact, and varied in all the essential shades of color for producing harmony of effect. The principal adaptation of this bulb consists in its suitability for planting near the edge of flower borders, etc., so as not to require removal, or in forming lines or edges entirely of such, which, after blooming, may be removed; as the leaves show maturity of growth by fading in color.

The principal months for planting are October, November and December, in ordinary rich garden soil, placing the bulbs about two inches deep, and four to six inches from the edge; each group of six to eight bulbs being planted in its own relative color, or in blended varieties. These improve for some years if not disturbed. To secure a succession of blooms in pots, commence early in the first-named month with six or eight bulbs in each well-drained pot, using the same rich soil, and planting about an inch deep, and, thus planted, place the pots on a surface of ashes, covering them over one inch deep with soil, tan, or dry leaf-mould, until the leaves appear through the soil, when they may be removed to the house.

SNOWDROPS.

CROCUS.

LILY OF THE VALLEY.

Snowdrops.

The pretty Snowdrop, "in habit white and plain," is the first of all flowers to herald the approach of spring. Long before any other flower, it shoots up its slender stem, and displays its white, drooping corols, while the spotless snow still covers the shady recesses of the garden. They flourish well in any soil, and bloom best if not transplanted oftener than every three years. Being dwarf, they should be set near the edge of walks, where they show to advantage. They also flourish well in sand or moss, or in pots or baskets.

Narcissus.

All the varieties are extremely hardy and popular either as a border or florists' flower. The Single Narcissus is quite an attractive flower, the central cup being of a very different color from the six petals. Some have the petals of a light yellow and the cup orange; others have the petals white and the cup yellow; while the Poet's, or Pheasant's Eye Narcissus is snowy white, with red cup. The Double varieties are very desirable. The well-known Daffodil is of this class. Its true name is Van Sion.

The Polyanthus Narcissus are very attractive and showy flowers, producing on a tall stem large clusters of white and yellow cup-shaped blossoms, and are particularly admired for their sweet jasmine perfume; they contrast finely with the Hyacinth, for garden, pot or glass culture, and require the same treatment. They are now extensively grown as a florist flower, particularly the Dubius Single and the Double Roman.

Anemones.

These charming hardy spring flowers having such brilliant colors are becoming better known, and more popular as a garden flower; both double and single are equally desirable, and no garden should be without them. They are well adapted either for pot or border culture, and planted in masses are most effective. They succeed best in a light, rich and well-drained loam. Plant in October or November, or as soon as the ground can be worked in the spring. If planted in the autumn, they should be covered with leaves, straw or long manure on the approach of winter.

For pot culture fill with any rich porous compost, and good drainage, planting four roots in a six-inch pot, place in a cold frame, or any moderately cool situation, giving very little water until the plants appear, then remove to the greenhouse or sitting-room window.

Ranunculus.

For symmetry of form and brilliancy of color in almost all the varieties and hues which are recognized among flowers, the Ranunculus is probably unequalled by any other; for its culture it requires a good depth of light, rich garden soil. The tubers are rather tender, and can be planted out of doors early in the spring; also planted out in the fall, if thoroughly protected from frost, by a covering of straw, leaves, or long manure; and grown in pots, for forcing into early bloom in the greenhouse, if planted in November or December.

Iris (Fleur-de-Lis).

The Iris is a very extensive and beautiful family, commonly known as the Flowering Flag. They are hardy Spring blooming plants, for the open border, with large, handsome, rich and varied colored flowers, in June and July, growing from 18 inches to 2 feet high; of easy culture, thriving in any good garden soil. Plant from September to December. The first four on our list are perfectly hardy, and require no particular care, except replanting every two or three years; the remaining four are not so hardy; they require protection in the winter, of leaves, straw or long manure, and should not be planted out until after the middle of November, and are excellent pot plants for the house. All the varieties on this list can be forced into early bloom.

LILIUM LANCIFOLIUM.

LILIUM AURATUM.

LILIUM CANDIDUM.

Lilium.

The Lily has always been a favorite flower. Some of the varieties are truly magnificent. The Lilium auratum is the great Lily from Japan, called the "Golden-banded Lily." This is the king of Lilies. The flower is from eight to twelve inches across, composed of six delicate ivory white petals, each being thickly studded with rich chocolate crimson spots, and having a bright golden band through the centre of each petal, with an exquisite vanilla-like perfume. As the bulbs acquire age and strength, the flowers obtain their maximum size and number. Upwards of twelve flowers have been produced on a single stem. It is perfectly hardy, and thrives best in a dry, rather poor garden loam, and should be planted six inches in depth; also admirably adapted for pot culture. The Japan Lilies.—Lilium lancifolium,—are among the most beautiful and delightfully fragrant, and are suited for either pot or garden culture; their period of blooming is during the months of July and August. Our list will be found to embrace all the best and leading varieties. They are all hardy, and the bulbs can be planted either in the autumn or spring, although autumn is preferable; Candidum and Longiflorum Japonicum must be planted in the autumn, as they commence then to grow; and a covering of manure will be found beneficial for all the varieties, but must be removed early in the spring. The ground should be thoroughly drained for Lilies.

Watering-Pots, Japanned Green.—The French pattern is considered an improvement over the old style of Watering-Pots. It being oval, and the handle extending from the side to the opposite side on top, makes it convenient to handle, it can be used and tilted with one hand to any desired angle without any extra exertion. We have these pots made of extra heavy tin with an iron-hooped base, to protect the sides and bottom from being indented, with an extra spout and two copper-faced roses, fine and coarse, and japanned inside and outside; the spout can be detached, and the rose or sprinkler put on for watering seedlings and fine plants.

Sulphur Bellows, or Floral and Vintage Duster, for the extermination of bugs, worms, insects, and mildew upon grape-vines, etc. By the use of this implement the flour of sulphur can be evenly distributed over every part of the affected plant. 3 sizes, $1.00, $2.00 and $3.00 each.

The Eureka Fumigator.—After many unsuccessful attempts, we have found an effectual apparatus for the fumigating of greenhouses, etc., doing away with the unpleasant duty of being smoked almost to death by the old mode, as they required constant attention to prevent the tobacco stems from burning to a blaze, and destroying the plants in getting rid of the pests that infest them.

This apparatus, made of sheet-iron, is of simple construction, and not liable to get out of order. When once lit, it is self-acting, and may be left in the house with perfect safety, as flaring is an impossibility, and setting anything on fire out of the question, while all the material is completely consumed without waste and given off in a dense smoke, filling a house in a short time, thus insuring the entire destruction of insect life.

It can be used for the following purposes: Greenhouses, Conservatories, Pits, Frames, Hospitals, Ships, Poultry Houses, etc.; for destroying vermin or purifying rooms. Directions for use sent with each apparatus.
